

Home School Family Campout!

Thursday, March 21st to Friday, March 22nd 2019

Spend a winter evening experiencing the wonders of Camp Seymour at night! Come for dinner, camp games, a traditional campfire and the famous Camp Seymour Night Hike, where participants learn about nocturnal animals and their adaptations, the glowing plankton of the Puget Sound, and much more. Campers will spend the night in heated cabins (which have beds, electricity and a bathroom). Expect to share a cabin with one or more families (requests to share are ok). Please call or e-mail Heidi Johnson, 253-884-3392

Parent chaperones will be charged a minimal amount to cover costs: $49 per parent plus $5 limited membership fee if applicable. Please bring: sleeping bag, pillow, twin sized fitted sheet (optional), toiletries (including a towel and soap), flashlight, warm clothes, rain gear, a second pair of footwear (incase one gets wet), something to share at the campfire (a story, song, a skit your family performs, etc...), and anything else you may want or need for a night at camp.
